ATTORNEY

St. Cloud Area Legal Services (SCALS) office is seeking an immigration attorney. SCALS provides free legal services to low-income people and is funded by the United Way, state programs, and private foundations.

BACKGROUND: SCALS is a nine-attorney office which provides civil representation to low-income people in nine suburban and rural counties. The office receives funding from a variety of public and private sources and enjoys strong support from the organized bar. St. Cloud is a city of 50,000, located on the Mississippi River, about 70 miles northwest of Minneapolis - St. Paul. There are three colleges and universities in the community, increasing the availability of a variety of speakers and cultural events.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The attorney will provide assistance to low-income individuals on immigration law issues. Representation can include service work, complex litigation, legislative/administrative advocacy, and community education as appropriate to client needs.

QUALIFICATIONS: Concern for the needs and rights of low-income persons is required. Immigration law experience is preferred. Second language ability a plus. Diverse economic, social, or cultural experiences are a plus. Fundamental knowledge of Windows and Office products required. Applicant must be licensed or willing to take the next Minnesota bar exam. Admitted attorneys from other states can get temporary pre-exam admission.

The person hired will be a part of a team, and will help other staff as required to meet client service needs.
